the year.

Commander Callan spoke last night at a joint meeting of the Schenectady urged the closest co-operation between the Legion and the auxiliaries and de-

The meeting, which was preceded by a dinner, was one of the largest ever held in Schenectady.

ment aviation units are to have a part in the big benefit being arranged for the widow and children of Lieutenant Belvin Maynard, "the Flying Parson," who met his death in a flight. The benefit will take place Sunday, November 19, at Curtis Field, and a series of interesting events is being ar-prince, was one of the nation's most

Books of Day's Firm Go Before U.S. Jury To-day

Contempt Action Against Former Dry Enforcement
Chief Dropped When He Agrees to Show Records

$100,000 Loan Admitted

Investigators on Trail of Rich Rum Ring Said to Have Paid Heavy Graft

The Federal grand jury which for a month has been going over the check-books of alleged "millionaire" bootleggers, in an effort to trace down drafts paid out for protection from the police and from the enforcement office, will take up its graft investigation from the opposite angle this morning when specified records of the cloak and suit firm of R. A. Day & Co. are laid before it. The prohibition director, who returned yesterday, is president of the corporation which bears his name, and today's inquiry comes as the climax of the investigation into the management of his office, which has been under way since September.

Mr. Day flatly refused to turn over the books of the firm when they were first sought by the United States Attorney's office. He was taken before Judge John C. Knox yesterday to explain why he should not be adjudged in contempt of court. The proceedings were dropped after the former director's lawyer had explained the difficulty of submitting the records in their entirety to the taleman, but the concern's bookkeeper was directed to produce a large portion of the accounts before the grand jury to-day.

$100,000 Loan Excites Curiosity The jury's interest in the books is understood to center around a $100,000 loan said to have been made to the firm by Murray Garrison, while Mr. Day was in charge of the enforcement office. Friends of the former director declare that the money was borrowed to further legitimate business transactions of the cloak and suit company, which was described by its attorney in court yesterday as a going concern.

Lenine, Illness Gone,
Makes Public Speech
Soviet Premier Predicts Russia Will Take Strong Stand for Near East Peace

MOSCOW, Nov. 1 (By The Associated Press).—Soviet Moscow is now assured that Premier Lenine is in good physical condition and fine spirits. He spoke publicly yesterday for the first time since his prolonged illness, making an unheralded appearance before the Workers' and Peasants' Parliament. He spoke with vigor and his voice carried clearly throughout the immense throne room in the Kremlin Palace.

Lenine voiced his pleasure at the capture of Vladivostok by the Red forces of the Near Eastern Republic. He remarked that this had given Russia an outlet to the Pacific.

Russia would make a strong stand at the Lausanne conference to make a Near East peace, the Premier went on, explaining that the question of the Straits would be particularly emphasized by the Soviets, whose diplomacy, Lenine thought, would be just as successful at Lausanne as it had been in the Far East.

He was quite frank about the depressed state of affairs throughout Russia, but declared that Russia was doing more to bring changes for the better than any other country. The outcome of Soviet efforts, he believed, would surely startle the world.

Brooklyn, Saturday night. The semifinal of eight rounds will bring together Jimmy Wornard, of the East Side, and Carl Moore, the crack colored junior lightweight.

Expert Figures Miller Will Win by 50,000

Special Dispatch to The Tribune ALBANY, Nov. 1.—An election expert who has followed state campaigns for many years predicted to-day the re-election of Governor Miller by between 50,000 and 75,000 votes. He based his forecast on the registration figures, giving Miller an advantage of only a 30 per cent loss in the decreased registration in New York City, and Smith the advantage of a similar loss in decreased registration reported by up-state cities and comparing the percentage with the vote of 1920.

No denial of the existence of the loan has been offered, but it has been explained that Mr. Day did not approach private individuals in his attempt to obtain funds until after he had found himself unable to borrow from the banks.

The first explanation of the recent activity of the Federal prosecutors in investigating the financial relations between alleged bootleggers and the local and national enforcement authorities was given yesterday by the report that Chief Hugh McQuillan's special Intelligence unit had been put on the trail of alleged wholesale liquor graft in the Police Department and the enforcement office by canceled checks which were seized at the time of the arrest of Mannie Kessler. This man is the alleged leader of a wealthy bootlegging coterie and is already under indictment for the illegal withdrawal of 4,900 cases of whiskey and gin from the Republic Warehouse last summer. Two of the checks found in his records are said to have been made out to police officials.

Five Million in Checks
The total amount of money called for by canceled checks which have been turned over to the United States Attorney's office for investigation is understood to aggregate nearly $5,000,000 already and to be increasing steadily.
Among the records of R. A. Day & Co. which are to be shown to the taleman this morning are all canceled checks for the period since Mr. Day became enforcement director.

Because of the large sums which are mentioned in the drafts the authorities seem convinced that they are on the scout of a liquor ring powerful enough to buy any amount of protection.

Reparation Board Hears
German Views on Mark

Finance Minister Discusses Stabilization; Government Extends Every Help

BERLIN, Nov. 1 (By The Associated Press).—The session of the Allied Reparation Commission to-day was chiefly occupied with a statement by Dr. Hermann, the German Finance Minister, respecting stabilization of the mark, but no definite proposals were submitted. The questions of a moratorium, possible aid for Germany and control of German finances were not discussed.

The attitude of the German government, it is asserted, has made a most favorable impression. It seems willing to co-operate with the commission in every way and give all information desired.

EXECUTIVES appreciate the Unimpaired sight is essential to both. Daylight is best—Nature
